Equal Exchange Coffee Anyone? Wouldn't you like to be confident that farmers growing your coffee beans are paid a fair price for their work? Or that they have access to affordable credit which facilitates business planning and family stability? Or that the coffee was being grown in a way that minimized chemical dependency and maximized biodiversity. The really great news is that soon you will be able to order coffee beans (whole or ground) here at Beacon Heights as part of the Equal Exchange Interfaith Program. Paul Spoelhof will set up a table in the fellowship hall on June 7th to provide more information and start taking orders

Equal Exchange ensures that coffee farmers receive a fair piece of the coffee profit pie. (mmm... coffee pie) The fair trade model deployed by Equal Exchange is based on buying from farmer cooperatives which encourages confident relationships and delivers the best price to the farmer. Since March, we have served Equal Exchange coffee during the fellowship hour on Sundays and soon we will sell Equal Exchange coffee so that you can brew it at home all week long. Good coffee, sound sleep, sounds good.

MESSENGER SUBSCRIPTIONS DUE TODAY !!!

If you have questions regarding Beacon information, please contact the church office between 9:00 a.m. and 2:00 p.m.

"The word that shall not be named"

A knock on the door; a flyer in your door handle. We've each experienced uncomfortable moments with other Christians who persistently work to "save our souls," even if we confess ourselves as followers of Jesus repeatedly in the conversation. It is this type of experience that sours many persons on the church. It is this type of experience that makes evangelism "the word that shall not be named" for many Christian communities.

On this "Outreach Sunday," the Growth and Outreach Committee of the church will be leading a worship service that encourages us to re-envision the word and action of evangelism out of its modern, limited definition and into a broader calling of love and grace that Jesus originally inspired.

For this worship experience that will feature a drama and faith sharing, you are encouraged to invite a friend and to read First Corinthians 3:5-11.

11:15 Music Coordinator Search Committee update:

Since the beginning of January 2009, a search committee has been working to find a successor for Joyce Fry to serve as music coordinator of the 11:15 worship service. We have spoken to numerous persons, but have not yet found the musician who we feel has the ability to serve in this position. Please continue to keep the search committee process in your prayers. If you have questions or a potential candidate to recommend, we invite you to contact one of the members of the committee: Pastor Brian Flory, Tom Bever, Lynn Creath, or Tim Roth.

Thank you

Thank you so very much, church family, for the heartfelt and very meaningful cards and letters and phone calls and personal sentiments on our loss of Linda's mother. She was very dearly loved and will be missed always. We are now more expert on Alzheimer's Disease than we ever wanted to be and would love to share any information you might like.

Stephen Ministry

The city of Fort Wayne and Beacon Heights (or: How this could be life-changing for Beacon Heights)

The Gospel of Matthew ends with Jesus final words, "...go therefore and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of God, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit, and teaching them to obey everything I have commanded you." Whew! That sounds like we are called by Jesus directly to go and tell folks about the Good News. But that's something we at Beacon Heights have always found a little hard to do. For many reasons, we believe it is better to show our faith through our actions rather than crow about it.

What if we discovered a way to evangelize to the larger Fort Wayne community in a way we at Beacon Heights would feel comfortable with? Could we then more embrace the Great Commission at the end of Matthew? Well, in two little words...Stephen Ministry...we may well have exactly the kind of evangelism Beacon Heights can wrap itself around.

Stephen Ministry is ideally suited to folks in hospitals, homeless and abuse shelters, nursing homes, and long-term care facilities in addition to friends, neighbors and co-workers. Think on it some...see if you agree.

STAY TUNED! Next week:
Who and What are Stephen Leaders?

Wedding Shower-June 7

All men and women are invited to a wedding shower to celebrate with Sami Dick and Matthew DeVries as they anticipate their marriage on June 20 at an out of town wedding ceremony. The shower will be held Sunday, June 7, at 2 p.m. in the church parlor. Please come join in honoring them. The happy couple is registered at Target, Sears, and Bed, Bath, and Beyond.

COMMUNITY GARDEN PROJECT REQUEST

Do you have a medium-sized chalkboard or whiteboard that could be loaned or donated to the Beacon Heights' Community Garden Project? Our harvest season will run from June 7 through October 25, and we'd like to post items to be received each week. If you can offer this help, please contact Pastor Jan before June 4. Thank you for your support!!!

Christian Peacemaker Teams Need Our Help

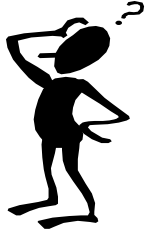

CPT may need to suspend and scale back compelling peacemaking work because funds are low. CPTers have drastically reduced expenses. Some have offered to work full time without pay or with deep cuts to very modest subsistence stipends. But transportation, rent, equipment, Internet to send out the news...these we cannot access without funds. Can you help fill the gap? You can donate online at <http://www.cpt.org/participate/donate> or send your checks to CPT/P.O. Box 6508/Chicago, IL 60680.

IHN Week Begins Today

St. Jude Catholic Church will take care of the first 3 evenings. Beacon Heights' volunteers are needed for suppers and activities on Wednesday, Thursday, Friday and Saturday evenings of that week. The sign-up poster will be at the table in the fellowship hall after all services on Sundays and will be posted near the drinking fountain in the north narthex. God bless you as you help. Questions? Call Ethel Klopfenstein or Kyla Zehr.

Something missing in your life?

Why not look for it in the fellowship hall on the table for lost and found items? You are invited to pick up your missing belongings and take them home. Items still here after worship May 31 will be donated to charity.
